

My trust to God

By Kyril Muzychenko

Growing up in a christian family my parents have always told me to trust God no matter what. Well that message didn't really go through me sometimes, I didn't really take it seriously sometimes.

Well going through ¾ of middle school I have learned that my parents were right. Somewhere in march we had a real lockdown and after that lockdown I was really freaked out although i prayed for it to never happen i was still scared, and that's because I didn't trust god

But one day everything changed. When I was going to sleep over we had to go to this thing called the kids club. Then the last thing we did was go to the sermon. The pastor told us a story on how he and his daughter wanted to go to the park to have a picnic but the weather forecast said there was going to be rain. Once they found out about it they started to pray to god so that the rain would mess their day at the park. Once they finished praying the pastor took an umbrella, then his daughter came up and said "why are you grabbing an umbrella if we prayed to god we have to trust him".

At first that message didn't go through me but one night when I was scared i prayed but i was still scared but once i remembered the sermon it got into me if i asked god to stop lockdown's he will answer, that meant i didn't have to be scared

In conclusion i realized that when we pray to god he will answer and it's never a yes like praying for something that you want like a new lego set it's not always like that so throughout this year i have learned that God has my back 24/7
